OLDCASTLE PRECAST CHESAPEAKE REGION DONATES FILE CABINETS TO SOUTHWEST PHILADELPHIA SCHOOL IN NEED

EDGEWOOD, Md. (February 2017) – S. Weir Mitchell Elementary School in Southwest Philadelphia recently accepted a donation of file cabinets from Oldcastle Precast Edgewood, Maryland as part of their “Giving Back to the Community” campaign. The donation was delivered and facilitated by Oldcastle Precast and students, and have been dispersed to teacher’s rooms that were in dire need.

Principal Stephanie Andrewlevich at Mitchell Elementary said, “the school seems to run on fumes and we feel very lucky to have community partners who give what they can. Thank you to all.”

As well, Andrewlevich

hails her hardworking staff and resilient students for keeping the school moving, but knows the district's continuing financial crisis touches everything.

"As the demands get more and more, we need the funds more and more," the principal said. "They have to give us the opportunity to let these kids compete globally."

Regional General Manager Douglas Bruhns commented, “We were very happy to provide the file cabinets to Mitchell Elementary. The teachers and staff were truly grateful and immediately starting filling their cabinets as they arrived.”
