Oldcastle Infrastructure Expands Footprint in Texas Market

ATLANTA, Ga. (April 20, 2022) – Oldcastle Infrastructure™, a CRH company, announced today that it has acquired three reinforced concrete pipe and box culvert plants located in Houston, Dallas/Fort Worth and San Antonio from The Quikrete Companies.

“Oldcastle Infrastructure has operated in Texas since 1996, primarily serving the energy and communications markets. The additions of reinforced concrete pipe and box culvert capabilities in Texas complements Oldcastle Infrastructure’s existing concrete solutions offering, allowing us to fill key product gaps to better serve our customers with end-to-end solutions within the water market,” said Jason Jackson, President, Oldcastle Infrastructure. “Oldcastle’s fully integrated model will allow customers in Texas easy access to a full product portfolio along with the existing services and quality they have always relied on.”

“It is a pleasure to welcome aboard such a talented group of people to the Oldcastle family of businesses,” stated Tony Whitt, Mountain Region President. “Together we will be a stronger organization, better positioned to become our customers’ strategic partner of choice.”
